
Class –VI POLITICAL SCIENCE

Urban Administration

Answer1: While playing in street, children broke the street light. They went to Yasmin Khala's house to know what to do for make up this street light.

Answer2: The work of the Municipal corporation affect the life of a city- dwellers in following ways:

- (i) It builds hospitals for the people.
- (ii) It opens library in different areas.
- (iii) It cleans the slums.
- (iv) It opens school for children.
- (v) It takes care of the street light.
- (vi) It keeps the streets and markets clean.

Answer3: The elected members of the Municipal Corporation are called Municipal Councillor. They are elected for a fix tenure of the five years, but can be removed.

Answer4: Garbage was laying all over here and there in neighbourhood of Gangabai. People were getting suffocation of the foul smell. Gangabai decided to go to Ward Councillor with her neighbour so that this problem can be solved. She described this situation to him and he promised to solve this problem immediately.

Gangabai also threatened to Commissioner that if the problem was not solved within two days a number of women from her locality would protest against the corporation in front of Commissioner's office.

Answer5: The Municipal Corporation earns the money to do its work in following ways:

- (i) Property tax on house, land etc.
- (ii) Tax on trade and business.
- (iii) Fees on water facilities.
- (iv) Fees on electricity facilities.
- (v) Income and rent earned from the institutions, property like the buildings, markets etc.
- (vi) Grants from the state government.
- (vii) Income from various kinds of fine on pets or stray animals.

Answer6:

- (i) The 2nd photo provides safety to the person disposing the garbage.
- (ii) The animals oaring around garbage dump may cause injury, herm or hurt to the personally.

There is always a fear of being get seriously ill or fall in the grip of serious diseases.

(iii) Municipalities have less facilities and transport available to dispose garbage as compared to the corporations.

Answer7:

- (i) It is important that the Corporation should spend more money on slum localities because the major workforce lives in these colonies. They work so hard that the economic activities of the city run smoothly. Hence, adequate money should be spent on the betterment of the slum locations.
 - (ii) The Constitution of India talks about providing 'equality of status and opportunity' to everyone. It also speaks about providing 'social, economic and political justice' to each individual. Therefore, the problem of unequal living conditions needs to be addressed.
 - (iii) The Municipal Corporation should provide the poor in the city with the same facilities that the rich get. It should ensure that the poor do not experience any discrimination.
-